

Easter Alive

Easter Alive is bi-annual presentation of the Gospel message delivered to thousands of children and parents in the weeks leading up to Easter. Next productions will run in 2011 and 2013.

A live dramatised account of the events leading up to and including the crucifixion of Jesus

Produced every two years, this live 35 minute walk through visual feast describes the events of Easter and Jesus' last hours. Past productions have averaged 2000 children through the day sessions, with several hundred more including adults, in the evenings.
